Down
Beckenham

Dear Prof Semper

I meant to write instead of sending you the circular especially to you, to ask if you would do me the favour to let me see any letters from my father that you may have, which I might make copies

Sir,

I need hardly say your slightest wish or feeling as to publication should be scrupulously considered

Yrs sincerely
Francis Darwin