
Painted from Nature & drawn on Stone by A. Hoffy

P. S. Duval Lith.r No. 7 Bank Alley Philadelphia

INTERIOR VIEW OF THE NEW CHURCH OF ST. JOSEPH PHILADA.

(Founded 1733. – Enlarged 1821. – Rebuilt 1833. – Consecrated 1839.)

Erected on the site of the old Church of St Joseph, the first R. C. Church erected in the State of Pennsylvania, Founded by the Society of Jesus; and rendered memorable as the first Temple in which the Hymn of Thanksgiving was chanted to the God of Armies in the presence of Washington & his military Staff, and the Representatives of France & the United States, for the blessing bestowed on the infant Republic in the Struggle for Right & Liberty