

HISPALIS VULGO SIVILLIAE URBIS TOTO ORBE CELEBERRIMAE HISPANIAEQUE PRIMARIAE EFFIGIES

DESCRIPTION
DISPALIS
 ANTIQVITATY APPELLE SEVILLE

SEVILLE, the capital of the Kingdom of Castile, is situated on the banks of the Guadalquivir river, in the south-west part of Spain. It is one of the most ancient and most populous cities in the world, and has been the seat of government for many centuries. The city is surrounded by a wall, and is divided into several quarters. The most famous of these is the quarter of the Girona, which is the seat of the royal palace and the cathedral. The cathedral is one of the most magnificent buildings in the world, and is the largest Gothic cathedral in the world. It was built by the Moors, and is a masterpiece of architecture. The city is also famous for its wine, which is exported to all parts of the world. The Guadalquivir river is the most important river in the kingdom, and is the source of the city's wealth. The city is also famous for its bull-fights, which are held in the Plaza de Toros. The city is a beautiful and interesting place to visit, and is well worth a trip to.

SEVILLE, the capital of the Kingdom of Castile, is situated on the banks of the Guadalquivir river, in the south-west part of Spain. It is one of the most ancient and most populous cities in the world, and has been the seat of government for many centuries. The city is surrounded by a wall, and is divided into several quarters. The most famous of these is the quarter of the Girona, which is the seat of the royal palace and the cathedral. The cathedral is one of the most magnificent buildings in the world, and is the largest Gothic cathedral in the world. It was built by the Moors, and is a masterpiece of architecture. The city is also famous for its wine, which is exported to all parts of the world. The Guadalquivir river is the most important river in the kingdom, and is the source of the city's wealth. The city is also famous for its bull-fights, which are held in the Plaza de Toros. The city is a beautiful and interesting place to visit, and is well worth a trip to.