

The growth of this popular seaside summer resort is unparalleled. There are now over 600 buildings, including hotels. In 1869 it was a wilderness and a barren sand-waste, assessed at only $15,000. In 1880 it was assessed at nearly $1,000,000.

Copyright secured by T. M. Fowler, Asbury Park, N. J.

1. Public School.
2. Educational Hall.
3. Presbyterian Church.

4. Catholic Church.
5. Episcopal "
6. Reformed "
7. Baptist "

Published by T. M. FOWLER, Asbury Park, N. J.

BECK & PAUL LITH. MILWAUKEE, WIS.

BIRD'S EYE VIEW OF ASBURY PARK.
 NEW JERSEY.
 1881.

