

Battles Give Way to Sports in A.E.F.

"Going up."—Private R. L. C. Wall, champion pole vaulter of the A. E. F. training for an athletic meet. England.

A little demonstration of the monkey art, with lots of "pop."—Gene Delmont in a friendly boat with Lieut. T. L. Moore. France.

"Come on in fillers, the water is fine."—Enjoying a swim between the mountains at Tournon, in the canal of the Marne and the Rhine. France.

"Bears mill em."—Three boys of the A. E. F. amusing their comrades by the wearing of German civilian clothes taken from the ruins of Thionville, France.

"Oie de Berdix!"—A German "blitz" commandeered for the trip. Luce, France.

"Some speed!"—Fifth of mile race at the American 2d Army Corps Field Meet. Near Carbis Combe, France.

"Soup, soup, soup."—Soup wagon race, U. S. Infantry Field Camp, St. Patrick's Day. France.

From horseshoe to music master—and "some" music. Basso made from strips of pine lumber, a German wagon tongue, a piece of tin, and telephone wire. France.

Overcast soldiers in esplanade.—The "banane" (French for "banana") and their traveling show add zest to all occasions.

How would you like to be with Uncle Sam's privileged tourists?

Why worry about the hot weather or a job? Take a cool and comfortable ocean voyage. See Hawaii, Panama, or the Philippines, and better yourself by attending the Vocational Schools. Earn—Learn—Travel.

Enlist in the U. S. Army.

High School Graduates: Investigate Uncle Sam's Schools. Say "18-40-3" to the nearest Recruiting Officer. He'll explain.

GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE

Fighting in France for Freedom!--Are YOU Helping at Home?

© International Film Service - N.Y.

NEW YORK STOP 61,000 MEN IN THEIR SEARCH FOR SLACKERS. PHOTO SHOWS A WAGON LOAD OF SUSPECTS.

As a result of a three days drive in New York special agents, soldiers and sailors "interviewed" over 61,000 men and made them produce registration cards and many were detained temporarily before they could be properly identified. About 1500 slackers were caught and sent to camps.

News Photo Poster No. 12

ISSUED FOR

Maine Committee
On Public Safety

BLAINE MANSION, AUGUSTA, MAINE.

ILLUSTRATED CURRENT NEWS,
New Haven, Conn.

Entered as second class matter, October 29th,
1913, at New Haven, Conn., under act of March
3rd, 1879.

DON'T BE CAUGHT NAPPING.

Every man registered under the Selected Service Law must carry his registration card at all times.

Obey the law and save embarrassment.