

Handwritten text in large, bold, black Thuluth calligraphic script on aged, yellowish paper. The text is arranged in a single horizontal line and includes several large, stylized characters. The script is highly decorative, with thick, black ink strokes and intricate flourishes. Small, lighter-colored markings, possibly circles or dots, are visible between the main characters, likely serving as guides or indicating specific points of interest in the calligraphy. The page number '٢٥' (25) is written in the top right corner.

Handwritten text in smaller script at the bottom of the page, including a small square seal or stamp on the right side.
